

Pat Lewis is recognised as one of the very best Peugeot dealers in the UK, having again achieved Gold Lion status.

Peugeot has again awarded local dealership Pat Lewis in Diss its Gold Lion accolade in recognition of its performance in 2010 being to the very highest standards and one of the very best Peugeot Dealers in the UK.

In a year that bought a series of successful key products that included the 3008 Crossover, the 5008 compact MPV and the RCZ Sports Coupe, Pat Lewis has achieved excellent levels of sales and service performance, highest customer satisfaction feedback, brand presentation through the latest showroom specification and product availability.

Peugeot celebrated its 200th anniversary in 2010 and places great importance on the excellence of its dealer network. The Guild of Gold Lion Dealers recognises the top 35 dealerships in the UK through a number of stringent criteria that include measures that rate customer satisfaction, parts supply, levels of sales and service, which determines the success of the franchise.

Winners were presented with their awards during the company's 2010 business meeting, so their exceptional performance was recognised by the entire 250 Peugeot network.

Jon Goodman, managing director at Peugeot Motor Company PLC, commented "The Guild of Gold Lions Award gives Peugeot the opportunity to recognise dealers who perform at the highest level and who go that extra mile for our customers."

Patrick Lewis, Dealer Principal at Pat Lewis Ltd said "We are delighted that Pat Lewis has again been recognised as a Gold Lion Dealership. Everyone at Pat Lewis Ltd plays an important role in our success and I'd like to thank all the team for making this possible. I know that this reflects well on the customer experience and the delight they take from the services we provide."
